Gluten Intolerance Group: 50 Years of Supporting the Gluten-Free Community

For 50 years, the Gluten Intolerance Group (GIG) has been here to make life easier and safer for everyone living gluten-free. Whether you have celiac disease, gluten sensitivity, or simply choose to eat gluten-free, we've got your back with trusted resources, education, and advocacy.

A big part of what makes our work possible is the Gluten-Free Certification Organization (GFCO). When companies certify their products with GFCO, they're not just meeting the highest gluten-free standards—they're also helping to fund the programs and resources that support you. The revenue from GFCO and our Gluten-Free Food Service (GFFS) program directly supports GIG's community initiatives, like educational resources and advocacy efforts that make gluten-free living safer and more understood.

And there's more! Thanks to this support, we're able to partner with GIG Cares to provide local community support groups, Generation GF programs for kids, the Teen Summit, advocacy initiatives, and even a Teen Board that helps shape the future of gluten-free living.

So, every time you choose a GFCO-Certified product or dine at a GFFS-Validated restaurant, you're doing more than just making a safe choice. You're helping GIG continue its mission to build a stronger, more connected gluten-free community.

And that's something to celebrate!

(Gluten-free, Nut-free, Vegetarian, optionally Soy-free)

Makes 12

1¼ cups Carol's Gluten-Free Flour
1¼ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon kosher or fine sea salt
½ cup unsalted butter, softened
¾ cup sugar
2 large eggs, at room temperature
1 tablespoon vanilla bean paste
½ cup buttermilk
Frosting or whipped cream
Berries or sprinkles, for garnish

Preheat oven to 350°F. Line 12 muffin tins with cupcake liners.
